

The seal of San Joaquin County, California, is a circular emblem. It features a central figure of a woman holding a scale of justice, with a plow and a sheaf of wheat on either side. The words "SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY" are written around the top inner edge, and "CALIFORNIA" is written around the bottom inner edge. The seal is rendered in a light green color.

San Joaquin County Employment Opportunity

Emergency Medical Services Coordinator

Emergency Medical Services

About the position

The Emergency Medical Services Coordinator is responsible for assuring the effective delivery of emergency medical services in San Joaquin County; assists with coordinating, managing and administering the programs, functions, and activities of the Emergency Medical Services Agency; and ensuring compliance with related federal, state and county regulations.

The position reports to and receives direction from the Emergency Medical Services Administrator. This position may act as the Emergency Medical Services Administrator in their absence.

About the department

The San Joaquin County EMS Agency (SJCEMSA) monitors and enforces more than 35 contracts for the provision of Advanced Life Support (ALS) emergency ambulance services, ALS and Basic Life Support (BLS) non-emergency ambulance services, ALS and BLS first response services, base hospital medical direction, receiving hospital services, trauma services, training programs, and other services. SJCEMSA administers the Hospital Preparedness Program (HPP) grant, which provides funds for disaster planning, including hospital surge capacity, mass fatality management, emergency communications, and advanced registration of medical volunteers. SJCEMSA serves as the lead agency for all Continuous Quality Improvement activities throughout the EMS system. SJCEMSA maintains an on-call EMS Duty Officer, 24 hours a day, 7 days per week to respond to mutual aid requests, coordinate disaster medical operations, and assist hospitals and providers operating in the EMS system.

SJCEMSA funding is provided through the collection of contract revenue, fees, grants, General Fund allocation, accumulated reserves from ambulance performance penalties, and Maddy EMS Funds.

SAN JOAQUIN
— COUNTY —
Greatness grows here.

Make San Joaquin County your new home!

A land of beauty, recreation and natural riches-from the waters of the Delta to the vines of the wine, San Joaquin County has it all. San Joaquin County boasts seven cities and some of the finest opportunities in the state for boating, fishing, camping, history-gathering, or just plain fun in the sun. Each city, as well as the unincorporated county areas, offers a unique opportunity to enjoy natural California beauty and nature, or music, arts and culture. Whatever your interest, it can most likely be found in San Joaquin County.

Arts, Culture, and Recreation

The arts and culture provide a much-needed respite from everyday worries and the Haggin Museum, San Joaquin County Historical Museum, and Stockton Children's Museum are popular spots.

The Stockton Symphony, San Joaquin County Ballet, and Stockton Civic Theater provide important experiences for children and adults. The multi-cultural community offers a diversity of views and opinions in its art and culture, providing a wealth of knowledge about past and present on canvas and stage.

Over 75 languages are spoken within the region and there is richness in the blending of cultures and ways that creates an air of celebration about individual customs, foods and cultures.

San Joaquin County government provides nine community parks for boating, camping, and picnicking, swimming and organized sports. Annual family events include the Asparagus Festival, attended by thousands of fun-seekers from the County and beyond.

Individual cities and communities provide a host of other opportunities, from Lodi Lake Park and Nature Area to the Woodbridge Ecological Reserve. The County-owned and operated Micke Grove Park offers a zoo, rides and a historical museum to delight both children and adults. The San Joaquin Delta is one of the area's best kept secrets and offers some of the best boating in the state: more than 1,000 miles of waterways stretching from the Stockton Harbor to north of Sacramento and offering access to the San Francisco Bay.

Education

From preschool to higher education, the County has it covered with an abundant array of public or private opportunities to learn and grow. The University of the Pacific, California State University, Stanislaus-Stockton Center, Humphreys College and Law School, National University, and the San Joaquin Delta Community College offer a wide variety of choices for educational opportunities. The County's 17 school districts provide families with a wide choice for children's educational development.

Agriculture

The county is one of the most agriculturally rich regions in California. Almonds are the leading commodity, with 87,300 bearing acres.

Grapes, walnuts, milk and eggs round out the top crops, with an abundance of other produce. Weekly farmers markets throughout the county offer a cornucopia of fresh fruit and vegetables. Fruit stands and pick-your-own produce farms dot the countryside.

Housing

Housing is plentiful in San Joaquin County and is affordable when compared to other nearby areas.

Housing ranges from new developments to historic homes found mostly in central Stockton and downtown Lodi. San Joaquin County is a place where families can grow, learn, and experience the nature and beauty of the California landscape while benefiting from the unique opportunities - cultural, recreational, and educational - that the area provides.
