THE POSITION

Civil litigation attorneys, do not miss this opportunity. If you enjoy being a civil litigator and want the opportunity to get more experience in the handling of a wide variety of cases, the Placer County Counsel's Office is for you. The litigation team handles all facets of public entity civil litigation defense and the successful applicant can expect to handle civil cases from the beginning to end. You will be doing everything from pleadings, discovery, law and motion, trials, administrative hearings, and civil appeals. You will handle interesting, challenging and sometimes newsworthy cases. It's an incredible opportunity for a civil litigator that is looking for an exciting career in public entity litigation.

This Deputy County Counsel II/III will be assigned to a civil litigation role within the Placer County Counsel's Office. Typical responsibilities for this position will include the following:

- Representing and defending the County and its employees in state and federal court as well as administrative hearings in a wide variety of areas including labor and employment, personal injury, public works, dangerous conditions, constitutional issues, environmental litigation, real property disputes, taxation and assessment issues, public contract and procurement litigation and law enforcement defense.
- Preparing and filing pleadings and motions.
- Engaging in the complete discovery process including written discovery requests, depositions, and site inspections.
- Developing case strategy and participating alternative dispute resolution avenues.
- Preparing for and participating in trial and appellate arguments.

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

The Placer County Counsel's Office seeks an exceptional Civil Litigation Attorney to join its legal team. The ideal candidate is a licensed attorney and possesses between two and four years experience in civil litigation. The ideal candidate will also have experience in advising or representing public entities and officials in the areas noted in the section above. Applicants are requested to provide a resume and writing sample along with their application, and are encouraged to identify in their application materials the experience and/or strength they have in the areas above. Dedicated and dependable legal professionals with an interest in public service are encouraged to apply.

VIBRANT COMMUNITIES WITH EXTRAORDINARY POTENTIAL

Placer County is an extraordinary community characterized by a healthy and diverse economy, an attractive business environment, and residents who benefit from high-quality educational, safety, and healthcare infrastructure in addition to a wide variety of outstanding recreational opportunities. The government center of Placer County is located in Auburn and is well-positioned 30 miles northeast of Sacramento, the State capital. The total population is approximately 427,661 in unincorporated and incorporated areas of the County combined (Auburn, Colfax, Lincoln, Loomis, Rocklin, and Roseville), including areas of the Sierra Nevada region, the foothills of Auburn, the historic Gold Country, and North Lake Tahoe. Encompassing 1,506 square miles, Placer County is part of the greater Sacramento region, including El Dorado, Sacramento, Sutter, Yolo, Nevada, and Yuba counties. Lake Tahoe, nature's crown jewel of the Sierras, is a short 90-minute drive from the western-most points of the County.

EMPLOYER OF CHOICE AND COUNTY GOVERNANCE

Placer County is consistently ranked first for its quality of life and is one of the healthiest counties in California. Home to Sierra College and Jessup University, with plans for two additional universities to be developed in the western part of the County, Placer also offers a variety of exceptional outdoor recreation opportunities and scenic open spaces. A wide range of housing options exist in the County including multi-family, small lot suburban and urban residential neighborhoods, ranchettes, larger rural residential properties, and extensive farmlands with a mix of farming and ranching opportunities. Outdoor recreation activities in Placer County are abundant all year long, from hiking and biking to horseback riding, rafting, snowshoeing, and skiing. Placer County has a strong heritage as part of California's Gold Country and is considered the Gateway to the Sierra.

The County is governed by a five-member Board of Supervisors elected to four-year terms by voters within their respective districts. Six County officials elected at-large are responsible to the Board on budgetary and operational issues. The remaining majority of department heads are appointed. Placer County is stable financially due to fiscally prudent decision-making and effective policy setting over the past few decades. Given this stability, the County has been able to achieve its mission to provide responsive, efficient, and effective public services in keeping with its budget and financial policies. The County's budget for FY 2025/26 is $1.37 billion with a current staff of approximately 2,800 funded positions.
