Director
Human Services
(Client Services Program Director)

This recruitment will be open until filled. To be considered in the first round of interviews, please submit your application no later than 12:00 noon on Friday, March 23, 2018.
The Opportunity

This is an extraordinary career opportunity to join a progressive and innovative County located in scenic Northern California. Placer County is an award-winning organization and a noted leader in the field of health and human services. The County seeks to attract highly qualified candidates for consideration that bring credibility, passion, and an innovative approach to the delivery of services to the community.

County Governance and Organization Structure

The County is governed by a five-member Board of Supervisors elected to four-year terms by voters within their respective districts. This governing structure has nearly all non-elected Department Heads reporting to the County Executive Officer. The County's budget for FY 2017/18 is $866 million with a current staff of approximately 2,930.

Health & Human Services Department

The consolidated Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) is a mission-driven organization responsible for a broad range of public health, behavioral health and human services. HHS places people first in its continuing mission of safeguarding the health, environment, and well-being of Placer County’s residents and animals. HHS consists of six divisions, including:

- Administration
- Adult System of Care
- Children’s System of Care
- Human Services
- Public Health
- Environmental Health/Animal Services

The successful candidate for the Director of the Human Services (HS) position will have the exciting opportunity to work closely with the Department Director to lead a team committed to the delivery of public assistant programs as well as the Placer County Housing Authority.

The HHS operating budget for 2017/2018 is approximately $194 million with 730 positions.

The Position

The Director of Human Services is an unclassified position that reports to the Director Health and Human Services. The Human Services Division provides financial assistance, healthcare coverage, food and nutrition assistance, and employment services to over 70,000 Placer County Residents.

This division is comprised of 228 positions and an annual budget of approximately $40 million. The Director of Human Services has senior management responsibility for planning, organizing, and directing the day-to-day operations of the Human Services Division; recommending priorities for division resources; serving as the lead member of the division’s management team; and exercising direct supervision over management, supervisory, professional, technical and clerical personnel.

The Director of Human Services is also responsible to plan, organize, and direct the day-to-day operations of the County Housing Authority to provide housing assistance to low income residents through the US Department of Housing and Urban Development’s (HUD) Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program.

The Ideal Candidate

The ideal candidate will be a decisive leader, a strong program and budget manager, and an accomplished professional with a demonstrated ability to develop innovative options to issues facing the Department and the community. This effective leader will bring outstanding creativity, communication, and consensus building skills along with a track record of working collaboratively with a broad range of people and organizations reflecting a diverse cultural and economic population.

In addition to the minimum education and experience, the ideal candidate will be an articulate, patient, politically astute and goal-oriented individual who is able to communicate effectively and contribute to the accomplishment of the goals and objectives of Placer County and HHS. In addition the ideal candidate will possess and demonstrate the following experience and skills:
- Mentoring, leading, and motivating staff in a complex, integrated, inter-agency and multi-disciplinary service environment that fosters mutual respect.

- Proactively working to develop, implement, evaluate, and achieve organization-wide goals.

- Develop, implement, and evaluate client services programs with a focus on successful outcomes that result in populations achieving self-sufficiency, improved health, personal safety and dignity.

- Excellent interpersonal skills; team building, coaching, and supervising.

- Ability to maintain a steady sense of humor.

Placer County and the Region

Today, Placer County represents a rapidly growing and prosperous community characterized by a healthy and mature economy, attractive business environment, and residents who benefit from a developed educational, safety and healthcare infrastructure, in addition to abundant recreational opportunities. Both William Jessup University, a four-year institution, and Sierra College, a two-year institution, are located in western Placer County.

The County encompasses 1,506 sq. miles (including 82 sq. miles of water) or 964,140 acres (including 52,780 acres of water) and is located 80 miles northeast of San Francisco. Total population is approximately 375,400 as of 2015 in both the unincorporated and incorporated areas of the County (Auburn, Colfax, Lincoln, Loomis, Rocklin, and Roseville). It is bordered by Nevada County to the north, the State of Nevada to the east, El Dorado and Sacramento Counties to the south, and Sutter and Yuba Counties to the west.

Well known for excellent, award winning elementary and high schools, Placer County also offers a range of housing options including those on small lots, one-five acre parcels, larger horse properties, or properties with a mix of farming opportunities.

Placer County is part of the Sacramento Region, which also includes the counties of El Dorado, Sacramento, Sutter, Yolo and Yuba. The County Government Center is located in Auburn and is well positioned 30 miles northeast of Sacramento, the State Capital. San Francisco and the Bay Area are an easy drive of 90 miles by car or also serviced by Amtrak stations in Auburn and Rocklin. Napa Valley is less than an hour away from the heart of Gold County.

Outdoor recreation activities in Placer County are abundant all year long and range from hiking, biking, horseback riding, to rafting on rivers, snowshoeing and skiing, adding to a focus on an array of resort and supporting industries.

Additionally, a number of vineyards and wineries have expanded throughout the County, bringing in a number of visitors and relocated activities. The Sierra Nevada Mountains and Lake Tahoe, parts of which are located in Placer County as well as the stunning beauty of the foothills, offer an unlimited range of recreational opportunities and incredible scenery.

Placer County also has a County wide agricultural marketing program called PlacerGROWN that assists County farmers with direct marketing of their locally grown products. They offer a wide variety of fresh produce year round, from Satsuma mandarin oranges in November and December, to peaches, plums, nectarines, and strawberries in spring and summer. Also grown is a large variety of fresh vegetables. Several ranches provide locally raised beef, sheep and hogs. The county has a year round Farmer’s Market in Auburn with many seasonal markets open in various locations within the County.

Minimum Qualifications
