THE POSITION

The Planning Manager position assists in planning, organizing, directing, managing, and administering various program areas within the Planning Services Division, including current planning, code enforcement, front counter services, an administrative unit, and other similar programs. This position is also responsible for serving as the County's Zoning Administrator and Parcel Review Committee Chairperson.

Key duties include:

- Division Management: Assist the Planning Director in the development and implementation of division goals, objectives, policies, and procedures. Assign work activities, projects, and programs, monitor workflow, and review and evaluate work products, methods, and procedures.
- Operational Oversight: Oversee and manage the operations of the code enforcement unit, planning front counter, and the planning administrative unit.
- Zoning Administrator: Serve as the County's Zoning Administrator for planning and land use entitlement requests. Conduct public hearings for planning matters and ensure fairness and due process. Review project applications, staff reports, CEQA documents, and other related materials to make informed decisions.
- Parcel Review Committee Chair: Serve as the County's Parcel Review Committee Chair. Oversee hearings for Minor Land Division and Minor Boundary Line Adjustment applications. Review and interpret codes and engage with project applicants, the public, and staff to address questions and concerns.
- Staff Supervision: Plan, prioritize, assign, supervise, and review the work of staff. Participate in the selection of staff and provide or coordinate staff training. Conduct performance evaluations and implement discipline procedures as directed to ensure efficient and professional operations.

This position offers a unique opportunity to play a key role in shaping the future of our rapidly expanding County. Your expertise will directly contribute to the continued success of the Community Development Resource Agency. If you are a forward-thinking professional with a strong planning and community development background, we invite you to join our team and make a significant impact.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Any combination of experience and training that would provide the required knowledge and abilities is qualifying. A typical way to obtain the required knowledge and abilities would be:

EXPERIENCE

Six (6) years of increasingly responsible experience in land use planning and development, including two (2) years of supervisory responsibility.

TRAINING

Equivalent to a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with major course work in public or business administration, land use, urban planning, regional planning, environmental planning, or a related field.

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

The ideal candidate for the Planning Manager position will be a seasoned leader in the community development profession known for their knowledge, experience, and expertise in planning, development, code enforcement, and/or zoning administration. A strong ability to represent the CDRA to the public, other County departments, other agencies, key stakeholders, and the County's Board of Supervisors is essential. Leadership skills, collaboration, and a strong sense of vision for the future will be keys to success in this rapidly growing area of County operations.

We hope that you will consider joining our Placer County team at an exciting time as we tackle expansion, growth, and continued opportunities for change over time. We look forward to reviewing your qualifications for this key role to help Placer County remain the best place to live, work, and play!

VIBRANT COMMUNITIES WITH EXTRAORDINARY POTENTIAL

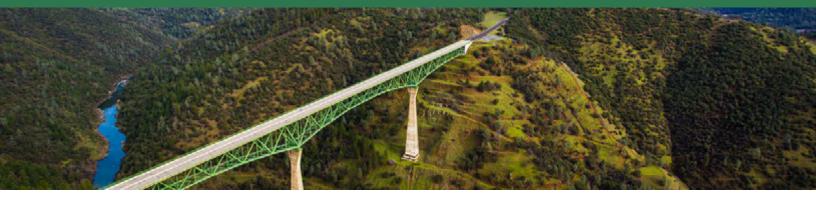

Placer County is an extraordinary community characterized by a healthy and diverse economy, an attractive business environment, and residents who benefit from high-quality educational, safety, and healthcare infrastructure in addition to a wide variety of outstanding recreational opportunities. The government center of Placer County is located in Auburn and is well-positioned 30 miles northeast of Sacramento, the State capital. The total population is approximately 420,717 in unincorporated and incorporated areas of the County combined (Auburn, Colfax, Lincoln, Loomis, Rocklin, and Roseville), including areas of the Sierra Nevada region, the foothills of Auburn, the historic Gold Country, and North Lake Tahoe. Encompassing 1,506 square miles, Placer County is part of the greater Sacramento region, including El Dorado, Sacramento, Sutter, Yolo, Nevada, and Yuba counties. Lake Tahoe, nature's crown jewel of the Sierras, is a short 90-minute drive from the western-most points of the County.

EMPLOYER OF CHOICE AND COUNTY GOVERNANCE

Placer County is consistently ranked first for its quality of life and is one of the healthiest counties in California. Home to Sierra College and Jessup University, with plans for two additional universities to be developed in the western part of the County, Placer also offers a variety of exceptional outdoor recreation opportunities and scenic open spaces. A wide range of housing options exist in the County including multifamily, small lot suburban and urban residential projects, ranchettes, larger rural residential properties, and extensive farmlands with a mix of farming and ranching opportunities. Outdoor recreation activities in Placer County are abundant all year long, from hiking and biking to horseback riding, rafting, snowshoeing, and skiing. Placer County has a strong heritage as part of California's Gold Country and is considered the Gateway to the Sierra.

The County is governed by a five-member Board of Supervisors elected to four-year terms by voters within their respective districts. Six County officials elected at-large are responsible to the Board on budgetary and operational issues. The remaining majority of department heads are appointed and work at the pleasure of the County Executive Officer. Placer County is stable financially due to fiscally prudent decision-making and effective policy setting over the past few decades. Given this stability, the County has been able to achieve its mission to provide responsive, efficient, and effective public services in keeping with its budget and financial policies. The County's budget for FY 2024/25 is $1.22 billion with a current staff of approximately 2,800 funded positions.
