TO APPLY FOR THIS EXCELLENT CAREER OPPORTUNITY please submit an application via the Placer County website www.jobsatplacercounty.com by 5:00 p.m. on the priority screening date of April 23, 2026.

Take advantage of this opportunity to apply your transactional law expertise to help shape the future of Placer County. Join the Transactions/Housing team in the Placer County Counsel's Office, where you'll work on innovative, cutting-edge programs and projects supporting the county's fast paced housing and commercial growth and core infrastructure expansion.

The County Counsel is the civil attorney for the County and reports to the Board of Supervisors with up to sixteen deputies practicing public law in the fields of transactions, housing, land use and environmental, litigation, child welfare, law enforcement and general government. The office of the Placer County Counsel provides legal advice to the County Board of Supervisors, independent elected officials, departments, and certain joint power authorities and special districts.

Current priority projects include the Sunset Area Plan and the 2,000-acre Placer One Specific Plan— a mix of residential and commercial development and featuring a proposed California State University campus and new Sierra College facilities and a potential County forensic lab; the Placer Commerce Center, a nationally recognized master-planned business park, the future 15-mile Placer Parkway connecting State Route 65 to State Route 70/99 and North Lake Tahoe economic development projects.

THE POSITION

Preferred candidates have 3-4 years of public entity experience in contract negotiations and drafting, including the areas of real estate purchase and sale agreements, leases, licenses; public works contracts for services and/or construction projects; tax revenue agreements; and affordable housing finance and loan agreements.

Typical responsibilities for the transactional attorney position include the following:

- Negotiate and draft real estate purchase and sale agreements, licenses and leases, use or operational agreements on behalf of the County with nationally known residential and commercial developers and companies, state and local governmental entities and certain joint power authorities and special districts.
- Negotiate and draft use or operational agreements with potential state and local agencies, other governmental entities, nationally and internationally recognized commercial companies.
- Negotiate and draft finance and loan agreements on behalf of the County for the development of affordable housing.
- Negotiate and draft contracts for county services and public works construction projects.
- Day-to-day legal advice to and/or preparation of formal legal opinions for County departments on a broad range of transactions, real estate, public works construction and affordable housing topics.
- Advise as needed on the Brown Act, Public Records Act and/or the Americans with Disabilities Act.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Candidates need to possess the following background/qualifications:

EXPERIENCE

Please see the full classification specification here for more information.

EDUCATION

Equivalent to a Juris Doctorate from an accredited law school.

REQUIRED LICENSE

- Admission to practice before State and Federal courts.
- Active membership in the California State Bar Association.

VIBRANT COMMUNITIES WITH EXTRAORDINARY POTENTIAL

Placer County is an extraordinary community characterized by a healthy and diverse economy, an attractive business environment, and residents who benefit from high-quality educational, safety, and healthcare infrastructure in addition to a wide variety of outstanding recreational opportunities. The government center of Placer County is located in Auburn and is well-positioned 30 miles northeast of Sacramento, the State capital. The total population is approximately 432,026 in unincorporated and incorporated areas of the County combined (Auburn, Colfax, Lincoln, Loomis, Rocklin, and Roseville), including areas of the Sierra Nevada region, the foothills of Auburn, the historic Gold Country, and North Lake Tahoe. Encompassing 1,506 square miles, Placer County is part of the greater Sacramento region, including El Dorado, Sacramento, Sutter, Yolo, Nevada, and Yuba counties. Lake Tahoe, nature's crown jewel of the Sierras, is a short 90-minute drive from the western-most points of the County.

EMPLOYER OF CHOICE AND COUNTY GOVERNANCE

Placer County is consistently ranked first for its quality of life and is one of the healthiest counties in California. Home to Sierra College and Jessup University, with plans for two additional universities to be developed in the western part of the County, Placer also offers a variety of exceptional outdoor recreation opportunities and scenic open spaces. A wide range of housing options exist in the County including multi-family, small lot suburban and urban residential neighborhoods, ranchettes, larger rural residential properties, and extensive farmlands with a mix of farming and ranching opportunities. Outdoor recreation activities in Placer County are abundant all year long, from hiking and biking to horseback riding, rafting, snowshoeing, and skiing. Placer County has a strong heritage as part of California's Gold Country and is considered the Gateway to the Sierra.

The County is governed by a five-member Board of Supervisors elected to four-year terms by voters within their respective districts. Six County officials elected at-large are responsible to the Board on budgetary and operational issues. The remaining majority of department heads are appointed. Placer County is stable financially due to fiscally prudent decision-making and effective policy setting over the past few decades. Given this stability, the County has been able to achieve its mission to provide responsive, efficient, and effective public services in keeping with its budget and financial policies. The County's budget for FY 2025/26 is $1.37 billion with a current staff of approximately 2,800 funded positions.
