

San Joaquin County Employment Opportunity

Senior Deputy Director—Clinical Behavioral Health Services

About the position

Senior Deputy Director-BHS is a single-position, at-will class that is exempt from the San Joaquin County Civil Service system. The incumbent reports to and strategizes with the Chief Deputy Director-BHS utilizing their administrative and clinical background to provide senior management level leadership, direction, and policy control regarding all aspects of BHS. This class is distinguished from Senior Deputy Director-BHS in that the latter does not require clinical licensure or engage in work, or provide leadership directly related to, the execution of clinical services. Both classifications may perform senior management level administrative work of all types. The incumbent is expected to model a strong work ethic and leadership skills, including accountability for oneself and others. The incumbent interfaces extensively with external agencies and may represent the Chief Deputy Director-BHS in his/her absence.

The ideal candidate

The ideal candidate will possess licensure with the State of California as a Clinical Social Worker (LCSW), Marriage and Family Therapist (MFT), Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor (LPCC), Psychologist, or Physician, with experience managing a public healthcare agency or programs, including behavioral health clinical programs. The ideal candidate will demonstrate strong executive-level experience in behavioral health administration and bring a balanced combination of clinical expertise and strategic management skills to provide senior-level leadership, policy direction, and operational oversight across Behavioral Health Services. This individual demonstrates sound judgment, accountability, and the ability to collaborate closely with the Chief Deputy Director in advancing organizational priorities, while modeling a strong work ethic and effective leadership. The ideal candidate also excels in managing complex clinical operations, ensuring regulatory compliance, and building strong relationships with internal teams and external partners, including representing the Chief Deputy Director when needed.

About the department

Behavioral Health Services (BHS) is a division of San Joaquin County Health Care Services and provides an array of mental health and substance use disorder treatment services, primarily for Medi-Cal beneficiaries in San Joaquin County. The department consists of over 800 employees in the following operational divisions: Administration; Mental Health Services; Mental Health Forensic Services; Adult/Older Adult Services; Inpatient and Crisis Services; Children's Services; and Substance Abuse Services. The mission of San Joaquin County Behavioral Health Services is to partner with the community to provide integrated, culturally and linguistically competent mental health and substance abuse services to meet the prevention, intervention, treatment and recovery needs of San Joaquin County residents.

Make San Joaquin County your new home!

A land of beauty, recreation and natural riches—from the waters of the Delta to the vines of the wine, San Joaquin County has it all. San Joaquin County boasts seven cities and some of the finest opportunities in the state for boating, fishing, camping, history-gathering, or just plain fun in the sun. Each city, as well as the unincorporated county areas, offers a unique opportunity to enjoy natural California beauty and nature, or music, arts and culture. Whatever your interest, it can most likely be found in San Joaquin County.

Arts, Culture, and Recreation

The arts and culture provide a much-needed respite from everyday worries and the Haggin Museum, San Joaquin County Historical Museum, and Stockton Children's Museum are popular spots.

The Stockton Symphony, San Joaquin County Ballet, and Stockton Civic Theater provide important experiences for children and adults. The multi-cultural community offers a diversity of views and opinions in its art and culture, providing a wealth of knowledge about past and present on canvas and stage.

Over 75 languages are spoken within the region and there is richness in the blending of cultures and ways that creates an air of celebration about individual customs, foods and cultures.

San Joaquin County government provides nine community parks for boating, camping, and picnicking, swimming and organized sports. Annual family events include the Asparagus Festival, attended by thousands of fun-seekers from the County and beyond.

Individual cities and communities provide a host of other opportunities, from Lodi Lake Park and Nature Area to the Woodbridge Ecological Reserve. The County-owned and operated Micke Grove Park offers a zoo, rides and a historical museum to delight both children and adults. The San Joaquin Delta is one of the area's best kept secrets and offers some of the best boating in the state: more than 1,000 miles of waterways stretching from the Stockton Harbor to north of Sacramento and offering access to the San Francisco Bay.

Education

From preschool to higher education, the County has it covered with an abundant array of public or private opportunities to learn and grow. The University of the Pacific, California State University, Stanislaus-Stockton Center, Humphreys College and Law School, National University, and the San Joaquin Delta Community College offer a wide variety of choices for educational opportunities. The County's 17 school districts provide families with a wide choice for children's educational development.

Agriculture

The county is one of the most agriculturally rich regions in California. Milk is the leading commodity in the area. Grapes, almonds, cherries, and walnuts round out the top crops, with an abundance of other produce. Grapes make up 81,600 bearing acres, much of which are wine grapes. There are over 85 wineries with over 125 different varietals represented within the Lodi Appellation offering opportunities for tasting and special events.

Weekly farmers markets throughout the county offer a cornucopia of fresh fruit and vegetables. Fruit stands and pick-your-own produce farms dot the countryside.

Housing

Housing is plentiful in San Joaquin County and is affordable when compared to other nearby areas.

Housing ranges from new developments to historic homes found mostly in central Stockton and downtown Lodi. San Joaquin County is a place where families can grow, learn, and experience the nature and beauty of the California landscape while benefiting from the unique opportunities - cultural, recreational, and educational - that the area provides.
