Whole Person Care is hiring for Community Health Outreach Worker

And

Community Health Outreach Worker Trainee

About the Program

Whole Person Care (WPC) is a program that is designed to improve the health of high-risk, high-utilizing patients through the coordinated delivery of physical health, behavioral health, housing support, food stability, and other critical community services.

Who does the Program Serve?

San Joaquin County's WPC program targets the needs of three potentially overlapping populations: (1) Medi-Cal beneficiaries assigned to the County clinic system who are high-utilizers of emergency services; (2) adult Medi-Cal beneficiaries with a mental health and/or substance use disorder; and (3) adult Medi-Cal beneficiaries who are at risk of homelessness upon discharge from WPC-participating medical facilities or the county jail.

"Our success in connecting with our patients early and often will be crucial to improving the health of our Whole Person Care clients. Regular contact builds trust and a good rapport, and helps lead to voluntary treatment and social support assistance." — Greg Diederich, Director San Joaquin County Health Care Services
