SAN JOAQUIN
— COUNTY —
Greatness grows here.

Make San Joaquin County your new home!

A land of beauty, recreation and natural riches-from the waters of the Delta to the vines of the wine, San Joaquin County has it all. San Joaquin County boasts seven cities and some of the finest opportunities in the state for boating, fishing, camping, history-gathering, or just plain fun in the sun. Each city, as well as the unincorporated county areas, offers a unique opportunity to enjoy natural California beauty and nature, or music, arts and culture. Whatever your interest, it can most likely be found in San Joaquin County.

Arts, Culture, and Recreation

The arts and culture provide a much-needed respite from everyday worries and the Haggin Museum, San Joaquin County Historical Museum, and Stockton Children's Museum are popular spots. The Bob Hope Theatre, Hutchins Street Square and the Grand Theater provide memorable experiences for children and adults.

Over 75 languages are spoken within the region and cultural festivals are held year-round, celebrating and sharing food, music, art, dance and traditions.

Sports venues include the Stockton Arena and Banner Island Ballpark for basketball, hockey, baseball, and other special events. Enjoy college athletics at University of the Pacific and San Joaquin Delta College.

San Joaquin County operates nine community parks for boating, camping, swimming and organized sports. Oak Grove Regional Park features one of the last stands of ancient Valley Oak in the northern San Joaquin Valley. Mickle Grove Regional Park has a zoo, carnival rides, a Japanese garden and a historical museum to delight both children and adults.

The Sandhill Crane Festival is held in Lodi every fall to herald their annual stop along the Pacific Flyway.

The San Joaquin Delta is one of the area's best kept secrets and offers some of the best boating in the state: more than 1,000 miles of waterways stretching from the Stockton Harbor to north of Sacramento and offering access to the San Francisco Bay.

Education

From preschool to higher education, the County has it covered with an abundant array of public and private opportunities to learn and grow. The University of the Pacific, California State University, Stanislaus-Stockton Center, Humphreys College and Law School, National University, and San Joaquin Delta Community College offer a wide variety of choices for educational opportunities. The County's 14 school districts provide families with a wide choice for children's educational development.

Agriculture

The county is one of the most agriculturally rich regions in California. Almonds are the leading commodity, with a value of over $694 million in 2020. Milk, grapes, walnuts, eggs, cattle, tomatoes, cherries, blueberries and hay complete the top ten leading crops.

Weekly farmers markets throughout the county offer a cornucopia of fresh fruit and vegetables. Fruit stands and pick-your-own produce farms dot the countryside.

Housing

Housing is plentiful in San Joaquin County and is affordable when compared to other nearby areas.

Housing ranges from new developments to historic homes. San Joaquin County is a place where families can grow, learn, and experience the nature and beauty of the California landscape while benefiting from the unique opportunities - cultural, recreational, and educational - that the area provides.
