

San Joaquin County Employment Opportunity

Deputy Agricultural Commissioner/Sealer Agricultural Commissioner's Office

The Position

The San Joaquin County Agricultural Commissioner's Office is seeking an experienced and enthusiastic professional who desires an exciting career opportunity as a Deputy Agricultural Commissioner/Sealer.

The chosen candidate will work under the direction of the Assistant Agricultural Commissioner/Sealer of Weights & Measures. Job duties will include the supervision of agricultural enforcement programs through the County. There are five Deputy Agricultural Commissioner/Sealers allocated to the department.

The ideal candidate

The ideal candidate will possess knowledge of agricultural enforcement programs, including knowledge of state, federal and county laws governing the regulation of agricultural commodities, and knowledge of state and local pest quarantine. Additionally, the ideal candidate will demonstrate strong leadership abilities in supervising and managing staff, possess excellent public speaking skills, and demonstrate strong communication and writing skills supporting interagency relations.

The Department

The Agricultural Commissioner enforces the provisions of the California Food and Agricultural Code for the protection of the public's health, safety and welfare, and promotes and protects the agricultural industry. The department consists of two divisions: Agricultural Commissioner and Weights and Measures. The Agricultural Commissioner Division promotes and protects the County's agricultural interests while protecting the public health and environment. The Division enforces pesticide use and worker safety regulations and quarantine regulations and performs pest detection, pest management and pest eradication activities. The Agricultural Commissioner prepares the County's annual agricultural report which is provided to the Board of Supervisors, growers, food processors, libraries, businesses, schools and other interested parties.

The Division of Weights and Measures protects consumers and businesses by promoting fairness and equity in the marketplace with the enforcement of the California Business and Professions Code and other State and County laws and regulations. Areas of enforcement by the Division are: Weighing and Measuring Devices, Petroleum Products, Weighmaster, and Package Labeling Quantity Control.

The department's budget for the 2025-2026 fiscal year is approximately $12 million. There are 47 full-time and approximately 19 seasonal employees.

SAN JOAQUIN
—COUNTY—
Greatness grows here.

Make San Joaquin County your new home!

A land of beauty, recreation and natural riches-from the waters of the Delta to the vines of the wine, San Joaquin County has it all. San Joaquin County boasts eight cities and some of the finest opportunities in the state for boating, fishing, camping, history-gathering, or just plain fun in the sun. Each city, as well as the unincorporated county areas, offers a unique opportunity to enjoy natural California beauty and nature, or music, arts and culture. Whatever your interest, it can most likely be found in San Joaquin County.

Arts, Culture, and Recreation

The arts and culture provide a much-needed respite from everyday worries and the Haggin Museum, San Joaquin County Historical Museum, and Stockton Children's Museum are popular spots.

The Stockton Symphony, San Joaquin County Ballet, and Stockton Civic Theater provide important experiences for children and adults. The multi-cultural community offers a diversity of views and opinions in its art and culture, providing a wealth of knowledge about past and present on canvas and stage.

Over 75 languages are spoken within the region and there is richness in the blending of cultures and ways that creates an air of celebration about individual customs, foods and cultures.

San Joaquin County government provides nine community parks for boating, camping, and picnicking, swimming and organized sports. Annual family events include the Asparagus Festival, attended by thousands of fun-seekers from the County and beyond.

Individual cities and communities provide a host of other opportunities, from Lodi Lake Park and Nature Area to the Woodbridge Ecological Reserve. The County-owned and operated Micke Grove Park offers a zoo, rides and a historical museum to delight both children and adults. The San Joaquin Delta is one of the area's best kept secrets and offers some of the best boating in the state: more than 1,000 miles of waterways stretching from the Stockton Harbor to north of Sacramento and offering access to the San Francisco Bay.

Education

From preschool to higher education, the County has it covered with an abundant array of public and private opportunities to learn and grow. The University of the Pacific, California State University, Stanislaus-Stockton Center, Humphreys College and Law School, National University, and San Joaquin Delta Community College offer a wide variety of choices for educational opportunities. The County's 17 school districts provide families with a wide choice for children's educational development.

Agriculture

The County is one of the most agriculturally rich regions in California. Milk is the leading commodity in the area. Grapes, eggs/chickens, walnuts, cherries, cattle, tomatoes, blueberries and silage round out the top crops, with an abundance of other produce. Grapes make up 81,600 bearing acres, much of which are wine grapes. There are over 85 wineries with over 125 different varieties represented within the Lodi Appellation offering opportunities for tasting and special events.

Weekly farmers markets throughout the County offer a cornucopia of fresh fruit and vegetables. Fruit stands and pick-your-own produce farms dot the countryside.

Housing

Housing is plentiful in San Joaquin County and is affordable when compared to other nearby areas.

Housing ranges from new developments to historic homes. San Joaquin County is a place where families can grow, learn, and experience the nature and beauty of the California landscape while benefiting from the unique opportunities - cultural, recreational, and educational - that the area provides.
