

The seal of San Joaquin County, California, is a circular emblem. It features a central shield with a balance scale, a book, and a sheaf of wheat. The shield is surrounded by a wreath. The words "SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY" are written in a circle around the shield, and "CALIFORNIA" is written at the bottom.

San Joaquin County Employment Opportunity

Medical Examiner Investigator

Office of the Medical Examiner

About the position

The Medical Examiner Investigator is the journey-level class in this newly established series. Under direction from the Medical Examiner, the Investigator will perform investigative and administrative work relating to the cause, manner, and circumstances of death cases. An incumbent in this position will be responsible for routine and complex investigations and for coordinating with law enforcement agencies to coordinate investigation of death resulting from criminal acts. The Medical Examiner Investigator is not a sworn peace officer, however, they may appear as a witness in criminal and civil proceedings to testify to facts gathered during an investigation.

The ideal Candidate

An ideal Medical Examiner Investigator candidate will have working knowledge of Medical Examiner or Coroner's Office investigative practices including anatomy, physiology and medical terminology. They will also possess knowledge of rules of evidence and methods to preserve and safeguard evidence. Qualified candidates will have a combination of a bachelor's degree and experience in either medical or law enforcement investigations.

About the department

The San Joaquin County Office of the Medical Examiner is a newly created division within the Health Care Services Agency that is now among a select few counties in California that has a Medical Examiner's Office separate from the Sheriff's Department. The Office is tasked with providing independent, objective and timely medical, investigative, administrative and custodial functions to determine the cause and manner of death through careful examination and significant evidence. The department is committed to excellence, professionalism, and integrity as we serve our community.

SAN JOAQUIN
—COUNTY—
Greatness grows here.

Make San Joaquin County your new home!

A land of beauty, recreation and natural riches-from the waters of the Delta to the vines of the wine, San Joaquin County has it all. San Joaquin County boasts seven cities and some of the finest opportunities in the state for boating, fishing, camping, history-gathering, or just plain fun in the sun. Each city, as well as the unincorporated county areas, offers a unique opportunity to enjoy natural California beauty and nature, or music, arts and culture. Whatever your interest, it can most likely be found in San Joaquin County.

Arts, Culture, and Recreation

The arts and culture provide a much-needed respite from everyday worries and the Haggin Museum, San Joaquin County Historical Museum, and Stockton Children's Museum are popular spots.

The Stockton Symphony, San Joaquin County Ballet, and Stockton Civic Theater provide important experiences for children and adults. The multi-cultural community offers a diversity of views and opinions in its art and culture, providing a wealth of knowledge about past and present on canvas and stage.

Over 75 languages are spoken within the region and there is richness in the blending of cultures and ways that creates an air of celebration about individual customs, foods and cultures.

San Joaquin County government provides nine community parks for boating, camping, and picnicking, swimming and organized sports. Annual family events include the Asparagus Festival, attended by thousands of fun-seekers from the County and beyond.

Individual cities and communities provide a host of other opportunities, from Lodi Lake Park and Nature Area to the Woodbridge Ecological Reserve. The County-owned and operated Micke Grove Park offers a zoo, rides and a historical museum to delight both children and adults. The San Joaquin Delta is one of the area's best kept secrets and offers some of the best boating in the state: more than 1,000 miles of waterways stretching from the Stockton Harbor to north of Sacramento and offering access to the San Francisco Bay.

Education

From preschool to higher education, the County has it covered with an abundant array of public or private opportunities to learn and grow. The University of the Pacific, California State University, Stanislaus-Stockton Center, Humphreys College and Law School, National University, and the San Joaquin Delta Community College offer a wide variety of choices for educational opportunities. The County's 17 school districts provide families with a wide choice for children's educational development.

Agriculture

The county is one of the most agriculturally rich regions in California. Grapes are the leading commodity, with 98,000 bearing acres, much of that in wine grapes. Over 85 wineries within the Lodi Appellation offer opportunities for tasting and special events.

Almonds, walnuts, tomatoes and cherries round out the top crops, with an abundance of other produce. Weekly farmers markets throughout the county offer a cornucopia of fresh fruit and vegetables. Fruit stands and pick-your-own produce farms dot the countryside.

Housing

Housing is plentiful in San Joaquin County and is affordable when compared to other nearby areas.

Housing ranges from new developments to historic homes found mostly in central Stockton and downtown Lodi. San Joaquin County is a place where families can grow, learn, and experience the nature and beauty of the California landscape while benefiting from the unique opportunities - cultural, recreational, and educational - that the area provides.
