

Public Health Educator

Public Health Services

The Department

Public Health Services (PHS) is a division of the Health Care Services Agency, with a mission to protect, promote and improve health and well-being for all who live, work, and play in San Joaquin County. The Division is well respected for its tradition of strong community involvement and leadership in addressing conditions that impact health, working collaboratively with a broad array of public and private sector partners.

About The Position

San Joaquin County Public Health Services is seeking a dynamic and motivated Public Health Educator to provide program support for the Health Promotion and Chronic Disease Prevention Unit. This Unit seeks to prevent chronic disease through policy, systems and environmental approaches, in addition to direct education to the community. There are currently position opportunities in the Smoking and Tobacco Outreach/Prevention and Nutrition Education and Obesity Prevention Programs. Desired skills include planning, developing and implementing programs; conducting trainings and presentations; applying program evaluation methods; and grant reporting.

Typical Duties

The Public Health Educator is the professional level classification in the series and works with relative independence. Public Health Educators assess community public health education needs and are responsible for developing, implementing and evaluating programs, services, and materials.

Minimum Qualifications:

Education: Possession of a Master's Degree in Public Health from an accredited university or college, with a specialization in a public or community health education program accredited by the Council on Education for Public Health.

License: Possession of a valid California Driver's License

Compensation and Benefits:

Annual Salary: $65,098 — $79,127

In addition to the base salary, the County offers an excellent benefits plan which includes a county contribution to health insurance, dental and vision plans. Other benefits also offered by the County include:

- 1937 Retirement Act plan with reciprocity with CALPERS.
- 12 days sick leave annually
- 10 days of vacation and 14 paid holidays per year
- 125 Flex Spending Benefits Plan
- 457 Deferred Compensation Plan

Make San Joaquin County your new home!

A land of beauty, recreation and natural riches—from the waters of the Delta to the vines of the wine, San Joaquin County has it all. San Joaquin County boasts seven cities and some of the finest opportunities in the state for boating, fishing, camping, history-gathering, or just plain fun in the sun. Each city, as well as the unincorporated county areas, offers a unique opportunity to enjoy natural California beauty and nature, or music, arts and culture. Whatever your interest, it can most likely be found in San Joaquin County.

Arts, Culture, and Recreation

The arts and culture provide a much-needed respite from everyday worries and the Haggin Museum, San Joaquin County Historical Museum, and Stockton Children's Museum are popular spots. The Bob Hope Theatre, Hutchins Street Square and the Grand Theater provide memorable experiences for children and adults.

Over 75 languages are spoken within the region and cultural festivals are held year-round, celebrating and sharing food, music, art, dance and traditions.

Sports venues include the Stockton Arena and Banner Island Ballpark for basketball, hockey, baseball, and other special events. Enjoy college athletics at University of the Pacific and San Joaquin Delta College.

San Joaquin County operates nine community parks for boating, camping, swimming and organized sports. Oak Grove Regional Park features one of the last stands of ancient Valley Oak in the northern San Joaquin Valley. Mickle Grove Regional Park has a zoo, carnival rides, a Japanese garden and a historical museum to delight both children and adults.

The Sandhill Crane Festival is held in Lodi every fall to herald their annual stop along the Pacific Flyway.

The San Joaquin Delta is one of the area's best kept secrets and offers some of the best boating in the state: more than 1,000 miles of waterways stretching from the Stockton Harbor to north of Sacramento and offering access to the San Francisco Bay.
