

How To Apply for a State Job Opening

DAS Statewide Human Resources Management
Talent Solutions

August, 2020

Application Process

Get Organized

- What materials & resources do I need?

Where Do I Begin?

- Questions to think about
- Locate a device
- Set up an e-mail account
- Register for the OEC
- Build content for your application
- Line up a trusted advisor

Questions to Think About

Ask yourself:

- What are the job requirements?
- What materials do I need?
- What is the application deadline?
- What support or assistance do I need?

Locate a Device

Options could be:

- Mobile phone
- Tablet or computer
- Public library
- American Job Center: <http://www.ctdol.state.ct.us/ajc/FactSheets.htm>
- Friends and family

Note: Once you locate a device, contact DAS.SHRM@ct.gov if you have questions.

Set Up an E-mail Account

Set a professional tone with your e-mail address. Avoid edgy, controversial, or potentially offensive references. Consider something similar to these examples:

- will.jones@hotmail.com or will.jones528@hotmail.com
- felicia.t.ortega@gmail.com or felica.t.ortega122@gmail.com
- gupta.rima@yahoo.com or gupta.r1330@yahoo.com

Note: The document to the right is located on the CT Department of Labor website:
<http://www.ctdol.state.ct.us/progsupt/unemplt/M1A/Createe-mail.pdf>

ANYONE CAN HAVE AN E-MAIL ADDRESS!

To create an E-mail account and have an E-mail address you do not need to have a computer in your home!

All you really need is access to a computer!

Here are just a few places where you can use a computer:

- ♦ Public Library
- ♦ CTWorks Career Centers
- ♦ Internet cafes
- ♦ Friends and family

Creating an E-mail account is fast, easy and free!

Here's how:

- Choose an E-mail provider (such as Yahoo, Google or Hotmail*)
- Log onto that provider's website and click on the link or button for mail
- Click on the link or button to "sign up" or "create an account"
- Follow the instructions
 - You will be asked some personal information such as your name, gender and/or birth date
 - You will be prompted to create a login name (the name before the @ symbol)
 - You will create a personal Password
 - You will answer some security questions in case you forget your Password
 - For verification purposes, you will type in the letters and/or numbers you see
 - You will read and accept the terms of agreement
 - You will click on a "Create an Account" button

Congratulations! You now have an e-mail address!

* CT DOL is not affiliated with, nor does it endorse, any particular E-mail provider.

Build Content for your Application

- Compile your work history, accomplishments and skills in a document, or even better, a resume.
- You may not capture everything in one session, so work on it over a period of time.
- What you compile becomes the content for your application.

Line Up a Trusted Advisor

Ask someone who is skilled in writing/reviewing to give you feedback on your content. Who might this person be for you?

- Family member, friend or coworker
- Someone who helped you in the past
- Someone you look up to

Whoever you ask will probably be honored that you reached out for their assistance.

What Is a Master Application?

It's a time-saving tool!

Instead of typing a job application, you can copy the information from your Master Application each time you apply.

Example: You are applying for three jobs. Instead of typing three separate applications, you use the Master Application to copy into each of the three job applications.

The following sections are not copied from the Master Application because they vary for each position. You must complete or provide with each individual job application:

- Profile tab: Employment Preferences section
- Resume tab: Resume file upload

Application Instructions for Master Application

PLEASE FILL OUT THE APPLICATION COMPLETELY.

- You are required to complete all questions with an asterisk.
- This application will be used as part of the selection process. Your responses will be used to determine whether or not you meet the minimum qualifications of the job. If an exam is required, your application and answers to supplemental questions will determine if you meet the minimum qualifications of a competitive job class.
- Clearly describe your qualifications in detail. Credit cannot be given for education, training, experience, knowledge, skills, and abilities that you fail to indicate.
- Do not leave any answer spaces blank; if a question does not apply, write "N/A".
- Although you may upload a resume to further describe your qualifications, it does not substitute for completing the application form. An incomplete application form may result in disqualification. Do NOT write "see resume" in your work history, education, or responses to any supplemental questions.
- Failure to comply with these instructions may result in disqualification.
- Read the job posting carefully for specific filing instructions, supplemental questions.

Your Responsibilities as the Applicant

Let's Recap

Here's what you just learned:

- Copy a Master Application to apply for a job

Avoid Errors & Regret on a Job Application

- Spelling, grammar & usage
- Guidelines for managing applications

Spelling, Grammar & Usage

Tips

- Do not go casual on an application! Avoid texting lingo, emotis, abbreviations and slang.
 - Avoid all lower case letters. Example: state of connecticut
 - Avoid all upper case letters. Example: STATE OF CONNECTICUT
 - Always use sentence casing. Example: State of Connecticut ✓
- Use proper spacing between words. Example: “trash and recycling,” not “trashandrecycling”.
- Make sure your Supplemental Questionnaire responses are correct and that you check the proper box(es).
- Ask a “trusted advisor” to review the application.
- Carefully check spelling and grammar; print your application as many times as needed until it is perfect.

Guidelines for Managing Applications

As indicated on the Submit tab, changes cannot be made to a submitted application.

- Work carefully and consider completing the application over multiple sessions to keep things fresh.
- Print and proofread for accuracy and completeness.
- Sign on to your Personal Status Board to monitor applications, view notices, and address any unsubmitted applications prior to the closing date.

What's Next?

- What to do immediately after you apply for a job
- Agency process
- Appeal process
- Maximize the OEC – additional features

Task List - After Submitting an Application

Tips

- Write down your OEC UserID and password.
- Maintain a copy of the job bulletin.
- Regularly check e-mail for any notices sent from the agency about the job, including referral questionnaires that probe on your experience and qualifications. If you cannot locate the e-mails, check your Junk or Spam folder. Sign on to your Personal Status Board every day to monitor your applications and view all emailed notices (click the date in the Last Notice column to view a chronology of all notices sent to you).
- Make sure you have a professional voicemail greeting and that your voicemail inbox is able to accept messages and it not full.
- If you miss a call, do not call the number back without first checking voicemail. It could be a recruiter or hiring manager! Always prepare yourself for discussion - have your questions mapped out, have paper and a pen ready to take notes, find a quiet place to talk, etc.

Agency Process

- You are notified via e-mail whether or not you qualify for a position and your name has been placed on an eligible list (Eligible for Referral).
- The hiring agency recruiter reviews the eligible list and notifies you, typically via email, if you are selected for an interview. You may be instructed to self-schedule an interview via the OEC.
- The hiring agency notifies you whether or not you are the selected candidate.
- If you have questions about the recruitment process, timeline, or your status, contact the agency recruiter or team listed in the job bulletin.
